Selectmen's Meeting

SEWER USE CHARGE TO JUMP

William Nicholson, Water Department Superintendent, met with the Board of Selectmen to discuss the increase in sewer rates which he estimated could jump from 190% of the water bill to 238% this year. The minimum rate now runs 71.40 per year for 3000 cubic feet and homes vary between 3000 and 9000 cubic feet per year, he said. Selectmen see this to be a very serious development and will intensify efforts to speed up the removal of gutter and drain water from the system which continue to show up in the volume of flow after a heavy is eliminated and Fairhaven hooks the Sconticut Neck area into the pipeline to the treatment plant, then the percentage will start to show in Mattapoissett's favor and the town's share of the costs should decrease. Mattapoissett is now paying approximately 50% of the waste treatment cost of the flow from this pipeline.

to study on site disposal problems. The study will begin this fall but Michalski said not much should be expected until the Spring of 1982 which is the best season to study ground water problems. He said that initially there will be 3 public hearings to inform the public. These will provide information as to what informational material is available to the public and will outline what information is needed from the townspeople to make the study effective. He said that sewer extension to new areas is now the last thing that the federal government is interested in funding. Federal grant requirements stipulate that any development must have had 2/3 of the building lots already built upon before October 1972 before consideration for funding to be sewer. He said the grant program is presently aimed toward correction of septic system problems in areas now existing. If a bad problem exists in such an area, he said, it might be more practical to build a large septic tank to serve the problem area rather than consider putting more sewage in to Fairhaven. At present Mattapoissett is pumping an average 100,000 gallons per day of a potential 250,000 gallon capacity of the contracted flow to the treatment plant. SEWER TIE-IN PROPOSITION

Frank Sylvia, Real Estate developer, approached Selectmen with a proposition to tie in his new Upland Way development to the Housing for the Elderly sewer system. Mr. Sylvia said that it would be an advantage for the adjoining properties to trade off facilities. The proposition is that ground water from the elderly housing project be piped into the ground water drains of the Hitching Post Way new development where he said pipes of large capacity are in the ground.

In return, sewage from the Sylvia development would be piped to the elderly housing system and thence into the Mattapoisett sewer system. Mr. Sylvia said he would be willing to convey a 40 foot strip of land to accomplish this. Selectmen advised him to discuss it with the Housing for the Elderly and will set up a meeting.

Mr. Moran and the Mattapoisett Police Department have agreed to organize a bike ride which will support St. Jude's vital role in helping children afflicted with leukemia, Hodgkin's disease and other forms of cancer, infantile malnutrition, and other catastrophic childhood diseases.

Located in Memphis, Tennessee, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas in 1962 and is today the world's largest childhood cancer research center. It is non-sectarian, interracial and completely free of charge to patients admitted by physician referral, and if their disease is under study. The institution's basic and clinical research findings are openly shared with other physicians and research scientists throughout the world in leading national and international scientific journals and symposiums.

The Bike-A-Thon is scheduled for September 26th.

Anyone interested in helping with the event or making a donation to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is asked to contact Mr. Moran at 758-2323 or at the Mattapoisett Police Department.

LOCAL GIRL SCOUT ATTENDS WIDER OPPORTUNITY

Elizabeth A. Braga, daughter of Barbara F. Braga of Mattapoisett, was selected to attend a National Girl Scout Wider Opportunity called "Mad About the Arts".

The visual arts educational program was held from June 26 to July 11 at Keystone Junior College, LaPlume, Pennsylvania. Included in these dates were six days of home hospitality when participants resided with Scranton area families. This program was sponsored by the Scranton Pocono Girl Scout Council. The council was host to 88 girls from 33 states and international participants from Ecuador and Greece.

The program took place at Keystone Junior College's professional Art Center studios where the participants received instruction from the Center's full-time art faculty. Liz received instruction in silk screening and cast metal sculpture.

Liz is a member of Plymouth Bay Girl Scout Council Cadette Troop 49. She has been in Girl Scouting for 7 years, and has earned the Silver Leadership Award and the Silver Award. She is an 8th grade student at Old Rochester Regional Junior High School where she participated in chorus, outing club, and was an honor roll student.

FALL HARVEST/WINTER GARDEN

Last September the Children's Museum offered a most enjoyable and informative program celebrating early Autumn and the season of harvest. Mrs. Eva Sommaripa invited us to her "super" garden in South Dartmouth and amazed one and all with its produce. Tending a garden does not end with the summer's harvest. Work continues through the Winter and Mrs. Sommaripa's tireless efforts are worth seeing. This year our visit is scheduled for Saturday, September 12th. Please be at the Museum prior to 2:00 p.m. when transportation will depart. There is a small admission for non-members. Please

MUSHROOM WALK - 9:45 a.m.

September is the time for MUSHROOM HUNTING. The Children's Museum is planning its annual "Mushroom Walk" for Saturday morning, September 12th, at 10:00 a.m. This is a chance to learn identification of the many varieties of mushrooms we have locally. Tune up your toadstool knowledge! A very useful thing to know! Open to all ages and free, please be at the Museum by 9:45 a.m.

NATIVE AMERICAN STUDY CLUB

This past summer, the Children's Museum offered an "INDIAN COURSE" that was given by Mr. George Carrier. This course proved to be so popular that the Museum hopes to begin a "NATIVE AMERICAN STUDY CLUB" this Fall. The club will meet on certain dates during the next three months and will celebrate "INDIAN SUMMER" and experience Native American life and culture through a variety of learning experiences, outdoor projects, hands-on activities, and optional field trips. In addition to exploring basic concepts about food, shelter and clothing, the participants will have an opportunity to experience the outdoors including a camping experience. Native American games, sign language, and contemporary Native American life are other elements of the program. The club is open to nine year olds and up and our class limit is twelve children.

The first four hour meeting will be Saturday, September 19th, from 11:00-3:00.

On October 3rd and 4th a weekend camping trip will be scheduled.

turn $811,608 to more than 6,000 Massachusetts residents under the State's Unclaimed Money Law.

Treasurer Crane noted that these monies have been turned over to the Treasury by insurance companies doing business within Massachusetts. Included in the proceeds are: unpaid life insurance benefits, unpaid endowments on term insurance and unpaid benefits on health and liability insurance policies. "Ninety percent," said Treasurer Crane, "represent the cash value of term life insurance policies which many owners do not realize they are entitled to claim."

Under the State's Unclaimed Money Law (M.G.L. c 200A) accounts which have been unclaimed for seven years are declared abandoned and turned over to the Treasury. Treasurer Crane then tries to locate the rightful owners to return their monies to them. From this area: Frances

Bicycle Safety Winner

Paul Rodrigues of Mattapoisett, a winner of the Commonwealth's Bike Safety Week Program, was one of eight children who were awarded a Columbia ten-speed bicycle by Governor Edward J. King on Wednesday, August 26. This program was sponsored by the Governor's Highway Safety Bureau.

"It's an honor for me to present these bikes to these fine youngsters who have shown that they really know what bicycle safety is. It's through programs like these that we are able to promote bicycle safety and hopefully avert needless tragedies," Governor King said.

For the last four years the Governor's Highway Safety Bureau in conjunction with the Registry of Motor Vehicles has sponsored a Bike Safety Awareness Program. The program is designed to teach young people the skills necessary to handle dangerous cycling situations.

This year, more than 2500 school children, representing 78 elementary and middle schools throughout Massachusetts, participated in the 1981 Bicycle Safety Contest. These students qualified by mastering the information contained in the Bike Learner's Quiz, part of the Bicycle Awareness Teach-

Plymouth County Wildlands Trust

The public is invited to join members of the Plymouth County Wildlands Trust as they walk the largest of the Trust's 11 reservations, the 125 acre Emery Preserve in Plymouth, the gift of Mrs. Edward S. Emery, Jr. The walk will skirt the shore of Cotton Pond and follow trails through an oak and pitch pine forest and beautiful white pine grove. Jeffrey Wallner, a member of the P.C.W.T.'s board of directors, will lead the walk with Amy Galperin and Mario diGregorio. All three are associated with the Park Rangers, Army Corps of Engineers, Cape Cod Canal. Their knowledge of the plant life of the South Plymouth area should enhance the pleasure of those who join the walk. The walk will be held this Saturday, September 12th, starting at 10:00 a.m.

Take Route 3 to Exit 3 (Clark Road), follow sign to Long Pond Road, turn left (south) and proceed on Long Pond Road for 9/10 of a mile to the home of Mrs. Emery on the right side of the road. Signs bearing the legend "P.C.W.T." will be posted as guideposts. For more information call a member of the Walks Committee: Helen and small town charm that have drawn so many to Plymouth County.

And continues to draw them here! Between 1950 and 1975 population in the county nearly doubled and it is still one of the fastest growing in Massachusetts. Planners forecast population in Plymouth County at half a million by 1995. Much development in response to growth has been unplanned and too many pastures and orchards, meadows and maple swamps, forests, farmlands and floodplains have disappeared beneath asphalt.

Today, as towns and government agencies trim their budgets, public funds for conserimportant. For more information write in

Plymouth County Republicans

Leon Lombardi, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, was the featured speaker at the monthly meeting of the Plymouth County Republican Club. Lombardi, a State Representative from the 1st Bristol District, explained to the members a summary of the initiative petition for a constitutional amendment. It contains sections to limit the length of the Massachusetts Legislature to six months, provide proportional party representation on legislative committees, require all legislative pay changes be enacted by record vote and only take effect in the next legislature.

Under club business, Penny Reid of Whitman, Treasurer, reported that the chicken bake made a profit of almost 1200 dollars this year. "This was the largest profit made from a bake in several years," she reported. Zola Carr, chairperson for the bake, then thanked the many members for their help in making this year's bake a success.

Dave Chuckran of Kingston, president of the club, announced that there will be a flea market sponsored by the club on Saturday, September 12th, at Barnicoat's on Route 28 in Middleboro. There will be a local

Cranberry World

BLUEGRASS GUITAR DUO IN FREE CONCERT

Traditional bluegrass favorites will be performed Sunday, September 13th, when Boston's own Gary Mehalick and Orrin Star bring their version of America's best folk music to Cranberry World Visitors Center for an outdoor concert. All are invited to the free performance on the museum's Plymouth Bay boardwalk from 2-4 p.m., where prize-winning guitar picking, quick licks on the banjo and mandolin, and harmonious vocals will delight anyone who loves music.

Asked about the team's musical background, Anita Franks, Cranberry World's manager and curator, explained that when Orrin Star was the 1976 National Flatpicking Guitar Champion, he met Gary Mehalick who joined him on second guitar and vocals. The two then became one of the few widely acclaimed acoustic bluegrass guitar duos.

While Gary still handles most of the lead singing, the guitar work is evenly shared, with Orrin playing mandolin or banjo for particular numbers. Critically acclaimed by many, THE BRANDEIS JUSTICE cited "their voices and instruments are impeccably balanced and they perform brilliantly... anyone can understand and enjoy their songs immediately."

Known throughout New England, the popular duo has played at major clubs and colleges in twelve other states and has toured England. Also to their credit are numerous television appearances including the "Good Day" show, and an LP album.

The concert is one in a summer-long series of free performances sponsored by Cranberry World. Concert-goers also have the opportunity to tour the admission-free museum after the show, where artifacts and displays on the history of cranberries are

Computer Programming Lab

The Center for Research and Business Activity of Southeastern Massachusetts University's College of Business and Industry is offering the third in a series of computer-managed, self-paced courses in programming, using the basic language.

This course, developed by the Digital Corporation, provides the learner with the knowledge and skills necessary to write basic programs, the language used by personal and small business computers. Prior knowledge of computers or mathematical skills is not necessary.

Clyde Mitchell, coordinator for the Center, emphasizes the success the program has enjoyed in the past. He attributes it to high-quality design by Digital Corporation

One-Man Shows

PHOENIX GALLERY

During the month of September, the Phoenix Gallery presents the second in a series of one-persons shows. This month's exhibit features Craig Mock, a Rhode Island artist. Mr. Mock's art explores surreal visions of the subconscious through an intricate and well presented series of collages and small scale environments.

The Gallery is located at 64 Fort Street, Fairhaven. Gallery hours are: Tuesday -
Friday, 11-4; Sunday, 1-4 p.m.; and Wednesday evenings, 7-9. This show will run through September 30th. For more information contact the Gallery at 993-2248.

Bridge Schedule

Traffic on the Sagamore Bridge will be restricted according to an established pattern when major rehabilitation work begins on the 45-year old structure on September 14th.

Beginning the 14th weekday travel will be permitted off-Cape between 5:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. and on-Cape between 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 a.m. On weekends, travelers may use the bridge onto the Cape between 2:00 p.m. Friday and noon on Sunday, and those leaving the Cape will be permitted to cross the bridge from noon Sunday until 2:00 p.m. Monday. This schedule will remain in effect until May 25, 1982.

Use of the bridge will be limited to passenger vehicles and two axle trucks. Larger vehicles with the exception of passenger and school buses will not be permitted.

Local police will be on duty at each end of the bridge round the clock and will assure immediate access for emergency vehicles. For the latest information on the bridge work and the travel restrictions in effect, call the Engineers' toll-free hotline at 1-800-342-8771.

Speak Up!

SMU OFFERS ASSERTIVENESS TRAINING

The Division of Continuing Studies of Southeastern Massachusetts University is offering a workshop in Assertiveness Training that runs for eight consecutive Wednesdays, starting September 9, from 7 to 9 p.m.

"The workshop is for people who feel frustrated when someone cuts in line in front of them, for people who are hesitant to share their ideas in a group, and for those who are intimidated by their peers or salespeople," said Rose M. Arruda, coordinator for the course. "People can learn how to speak up."

you can install a Bilco Basement Door yourself

Enjoy the convenience, safety and low maintenance of an all-steel Bilco Basement Door. You'll like its neat, trim appearance, ease of operation, and the way it sheds rain. It's a great do-it-yourself project and actually costs less than having a new wooden door built.

*Complete instructions and all required hardware included.

Stop in and see our display.
We'll give you free literature on how to do it. Or, we can suggest a contractor to install it for you.
